The Most Important Verse In The Bible Romans 4:5

Introduction: Although there may be a number of opinions regarding the “most important verse in the Bible,” most of us would agree on one point. That verse – whatever it is – should answer the most important question in this life and the next one: How can a person be in a right relationship with God? Today we are going to discover the answer to that all-important question.

I. God Forgives Those Who Admit They Are _____

Romans 4:5 “But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness.”

II. God Forgives Those Who Realize They Are Incapable Of Earning _____

Romans 4:5 “But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.”

Romans 4:4 “Now to the one who works, his wage is not reckoned as a favor, but as what is due.”

III. God Forgives Those Who Trust In Christ To _____ Them

Romans 4:5 “But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.”

Romans 4:3 “For what does the Scripture say? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.”

Hebrews 11:1 “Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.”
